

TERRE DAVINO Roero Arneis DOCG

Terre da Vino is a top Italian winery. Located in Barolo, in the heart of the Langhe territory, with a unique philosophy: only wine from Piedmont, only DOC and DOCG wines. They are a winery surrounded by the picturesque vineyards of the Langhe district, one of the most renowned vine growing areas of the world.

They encompass over 5,000 hectares of vineyards cultivated by over 2,500 growers. This gives a unique basis of immense proportions which allows them to produce at a very high quality level that often reaches the peaks of excellence.

ORIGIN	The pre-eminent growing area for the arneis grape is the Roero, the area of magnificent hills on the left bank of the Tanaro river. Here, the calcareo-siliceous soils encourage the development of perfumed, elegant wines.
